

Business/Non-Instructional Operations

Concept and Roles in Business and Non-Instructional Operations

Business

The Board of Education recognizes that money and money management comprise the foundational support of the whole school program. To make that support as effective as possible, the Board of Education intends to:

1. Encourage advance planning through the best possible budget procedures.
2. Explore all practical sources of dollar income.
3. Guide the expenditure of funds so as to extract the greatest educational returns.
4. Expect accepted accounting and reporting principles and procedures.
5. Maintain the level of unit expenditure needed to provide high quality education within the ability of the community to pay.
6. Encourage cooperative relationships with other appropriate governmental agencies and officials.

Non-Instructional Operations

The Board of Education expects operation and maintenance safety of school plant and equipment to set high standards of safety, to promote the health and safety of students and staff, to reflect the ethical and cultural aspirations of the community at its best, and to support environmentally the efforts of the staff to provide a good education.
