

Students

Professional Research on Students

Research Projects Involving Teachers

An individual or organization wishing to conduct a research activity in the Waterford Public Schools must submit a proposal, detailing the nature and extent of the research, to the Superintendent of Schools. Research projects will then be approved at an Administrative Council meeting. Teacher participation in any such project shall be voluntary.

The State Department of Education or other state agencies are exempt from the provisions of this regulation.