

Instruction

Research: Testing

Parents shall be notified prior to any individual student testing for purposes of research. Parental notification shall include the reason for the testing and an explanation of the test to be used. All such test results shall be shared with parents.