

New Construction

Naming of New and Existing Schools, Facilities and Fields

It has been a long-standing history and tradition in the Town of Waterford to name schools based on the geographic location of the buildings. Further, there have never been fields, facilities or sections of buildings named for individuals. It is the policy of the Board of Education to continue these traditions.